

KIWANIS RIVER RUN-5K/10K
Saturday, February 27, 2016
Earle May Boat Basin-Bainbridge, GA

Registration Opens at 7:30 a.m.

Race Starts at 9:00 a.m.

The two runs start and finish at the Earle May Boat Basin (Shotwell Street exit off U.S. Hwy 84/27 Bypass) and take runners along the picturesque Flint River, through a campground, and along a wooded nature trail. The 10,000-meter run has been certified by USA Track and Field (GA05001WC). The featured 10K allows runners to experience the challenge of a very steep, although short, hill climb just past the four mile point. Special awards will be presented to overall winners, male and female, for the 5K and 10K runs, and three deep awards will be given out in each age group. Door prizes will be drawn. The runs serve as a fundraising project as well as a community service event for the Kiwanis Club of Bainbridge, bringing runners from Southwest Georgia, Southeast Alabama, and North Florida.
