

Special Olympics Florida

The Terry Massa Memorial 5K Run to benefit Special Olympics of Florida - Leon County is scheduled for Saturday, Saturday, September 21, 2013, at 8:30AM. This family-friendly event will be held at the Piney Z Lodge.

This event will be celebrating the life and legacy of Terry Massa, Special Olympics Leon County's 2010 Volunteer of The Year. Your support for this event will help raise funds for Special Olympics Leon County where children and adults with intellectual disabilities train and compete in several different sports, such as Athletics (Track and Field), Bocce, Gymnastics, Golf, Aquatics, Bowling, Power Lifting, and Flag Football. Special Olympic Athletes and their families are NEVER charged fees to participate in Special Olympics programs or training. Your support is an investment in their future.

Special Olympics is founded on the belief that people with intellectual disabilities and developmental disabilities can, with proper instruction and encouragement, learn, enjoy, and benefit from participation in individual and team sports.

Please help us celebrate the spirit of Leon County Special Olympics by selecting one of the sponsorship opportunities available. We also welcome you to walk or run in our event.
